SPECIAL LECTURE ON “MENTAL HEALTH AND EMOTIONAL WELL BEING OF STUDENTS”

Faculty Coordinators: Grishma Brahmbhatt and Saksham Mishra

Unitedworld School of Law organized a Special Lecture on Mental Health and Emotional Well being of Students on July 15, 2022 for the faculty members. The lecture was delivered by Ms. Uthara Brahadeesh, a Ph.D. research scholar of IIT, Gandhinagar and recipient of PM Research Fellowship for Cognitive Science Research. The session was focused on the mental health and emotional well being of students. Ms. Uthara has discussed the changing mindset of students and the growing issue of mental disorders. Also she has highlighted the importance of mental health and symptoms of poor mental health of a person.

Later she has discussed the role of a teacher in ensuring the students should get assistance in case he / she suffers from poor mental health.

It was an interactive session and faculties have reviewed it satisfactory and useful.
