

DRESS CODE – 3RD CONVOCATION

Please go through the dress code (refer page 2) for the second convocation of Karnavati University for men as well as women which is self-explanatory. We would still reiterate that the pyjama for men and the straight pants for women should be of white cotton material. The kurta fabric for both men and women shall be tussar silk of natural shade - color. This should be accompanied by traditional jutis or kolhapuri chappals in brown color. You are requested to get the same stitched on your own so that the same can be worn by you on your convocation day. At the same time the customized stole to be worn by you on that day shall be provided by the University.
