Events and Activities

The Legal Awareness drive for the students of Smt. JMG High School, Shertha Village was jointly organised by the Legal Aid Clinic and Centre for Research on Human Rights of UWSL on January 23rd, 2023 (Monday). The event consisted of an introduction about NALSA & DLSA, along with the role of the Legal Aid Clinic. The Legal Aid Committee of UWSL then presented an informative skit sensitizing on the topic "Good touch, Bad touch". It was followed up by informing in detail about the POCSO Act, legal provisions of punishment for various offences so as to deter the perpetrators and ensure safety, security and dignified childhood for a child.

1. Legal Awareness drive for the students in Smt. JMG High school, Shertha Village

The Centre for Research on Human Rights of UWSL presented an appealing Nukkad Natak on Right to Education and also informed about various govt. schemes to support socially & economically weaker section students at different stages in their education. As education is a crucial element for the growth of any society. A well- educated country always grows faster. For this the right to education is an important fundamental right that guarantees the prosperity of the country. The benefit of the RTE Act is that it ensures the development of the community and the nation as a whole. It ensures quality of education and as it stipulates that all private institutions must provide 25% seats to poor and other categories of children. Thereby providing equal opportunity to all in education. This act is a means of eradicating poverty as educated youth secures better jobs with better packages. This was followed by the felicitation of the School Principal Mr Vinod Vasava and thanks note was shared by both UWSL faculty & School staff members

2. Legal Awareness drive for the housing/ground staff of Karnavati University

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

-Nelson Mandela

On the occasion of National Girl Child Day, the Legal Awareness drive for the housing/ground staff of Karnavati University was jointly organised by the Legal Aid Clinic and Centre for Research on Human Rights of UWSL on January 24th, 2023 (Tuesday). The event emphasised on promoting awareness about the rights of the girl child and to increase awareness on the girl's education, and their health and nutrition. Educating girls will empower them to come forward and contribute towards society's prosperity, growth, and development. So, the occasion was chosen to inform the staff about the importance of education as it ensures the development of the community and the nation as a whole. This was followed by captivating Nukkad Natak on Right to Education presented by Centre for Research on Human Rights of UWSL which revolved around the importance of education especially for the marginalised poor sections of the society and govt. schemes to support the studies at various stages of the education levels.
